PLAINTIFF CROSSROADS SYSTEMS, INC.’S
COMPLAINT FOR PATENT INFRINGEMENT

THE PARTIES

1. Plaintiff Crossroads Systems, Inc. (“Crossroads”) is a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware and has its principal place of business at 11000 North MoPac Expressway, Austin, Texas 78759.

2. Upon information and belief, Defendant Quantum Corporation (“Defendant” or “Quantum”) is a California corporation with a principal place of business of 224 Airport Parkway, Suite 300, San Jose, California 95110.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. This action arises under the laws of the United States, more specifically under 35 U.S.C. § 100, et seq. Subject matter jurisdiction is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338.

4. Personal jurisdiction and venue are proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and 1400(b). Upon information and belief, Defendant Quantum has established minimum contacts with this forum such that the exercise of jurisdiction over Defendant would not offend traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

5. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Quantum. Upon information and belief, Quantum regularly conducts business in the State of Texas and in this judicial district and is subject to the jurisdiction of this Court. Upon information and belief, Quantum has been doing business in Texas and this judicial district by distributing, marketing, selling and/or offering for sale its products, including, but not limited to, products that practice the subject matter claimed in United States Patent Nos. 6,425,035 (“the ’035 Patent”) and 7,934,041 (“the ’041 Patent”) (collectively “the Patents-In-Suit”), and/or regularly doing or soliciting business and/or engaging in other persistent courses of conduct in and/or directed to Texas and this judicial district.

COUNT 1: INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 6,425,035

8. On information and belief, Defendant has directly infringed the ’035 Patent. On information and belief, Defendant continues to directly infringe the ’035 Patent.

9. Specifically, on information and belief, Defendant has directly infringed the ’035 Patent by making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing into the United States certain of its products including at least the following: Quantum’s StorNext QX-Series Storage Arrays (including but not limited to the QX-2400 and QX-1200) (hereinafter “the Accused Products”).

10. Further, on information and belief, Defendant has been and now is indirectly infringing by way of inducing infringement of the ’035 Patent with knowledge of the ’035 Patent

11. Further, on information and belief, Defendant has been and now is indirectly infringing by way of contributing to the infringement by end users of the '035 Patent by selling, offering to sell and/or importing into the United States components, including the Accused Products, knowing the components to be especially made or especially adapted for use in the infringement of the '035 Patent. Such components are not a staple article or commodity of commerce suitable for substantial non-infringing uses.

12. Defendant has been on constructive and/or actual notice of the '035 Patent since at least as early as November 2005, and Defendant has not ceased its infringing activities. The infringement of the '035 Patent by Defendant has been and continues to be willful and deliberate.

13. Crossroads has been irreparably harmed by Defendant's acts of infringement of the '035 Patent, and will continue to be harmed unless and until Defendant's acts of infringement are enjoined and restrained by order of this Court.
